*ACES Chinese School 2024-2025 Weekend Chinese Classes Enrollment Starts Now! ****

Dear Parents,

The Fall Semester of ACES Chinese School weekend classes will begin on Aug 18, 2024 and enrollment will begin now.

Currently, there are thousands of Chinese schools across the nation that offer weekend Chinese classes. The challenge every school faces is how to improve the quality of the Chinese learning process and find the most efficient way to teach. As we all know, learning a language can depend on many factors: a productive language environment, time, effort, and perseverance. To the weekend class students, these factors are not usually met. However, many parents still continue to send their children to Chinese school, because we all realize this is a very important life skill, and is worth the effort we put into it. With the same intentions of developing and honing this skill, we will spend more effort, explore more effective teaching methods, and hope to make a breakthrough in weekend Chinese classes' format.

ACES Chinese school is proud of our very stable and outstanding staff. The majority of our weekend class teachers also teach our afternoon classes. They are all professional Chinese language teachers – that is, teaching Chinese is their primary job. They are experienced and extremely patient towards all students. Our strong weekend classes team ensures the quality of our weekend Chinese program.

To ensure the highest quality, we need time to prepare textbooks, teaching curriculums, classes, teachers, etc, to best fit your children's needs. As a result, please register your students at your earliest convenient time. Thank you.
